Wildcat Mania Continues

It won't be just the Wildcat moms and Wildcat mascot backing the football team this week. Mayor Norman Whitsitt has proclaimed the entire week Wildcat Week in Plano. Accepting the official proclamation from the mayor are moms (left to right) Carlene Ulmer, Carolyn Pedigo and Margie Burch and mascot Lauren Mathis. The Wildcat Week declaration notes that the team's district, bi-district, regional and quarterfinals wins are "honors highly deserved" and also praises the PISD, Head Coach Tommy Kimbrough and the coaching staff, team managers, members of the band and drill team, cheerleaders, and "faithful, enthusiastic fans who support the Plano Wildcats." The home team will play the Odessa Permian Panthers at 2:30 p.m. in Lubbock. (Staff photo by Richard LaGow).

In Local Suburbs

DHA Subsidizes Rents

In an effort to force suburban cities into "sharing the burden of housing the poor," the Dallas Housing Authority is extending its subsidized rent programs into Plano and other Dallas area suburbs.

Currently, only one family here is receiving a rent subsidy from the DHA but plans call for the authority to begin purchasing existing apartment buildings in suburbs and turning them into DHA housing projects, according to DHA executive director Bill Darnall.

The Dallas Housing Authority was originally formed to serve the rent-subsidized housing needs of Dallas County, but state law gives the agency the right to serve areas within five miles of Dallas County limits.

If apartment complexes in Plano are purchased by the DHA, cooperation agreements with the City of Plano would be required. The Dallas agency has not yet approached city officials here with its request.

The housing authority operates the Section 8 rent subsidy program which allows qualified low-income renters to choose their own apartments and, if their landlord agrees, DHA will subsidize their rent.

Renters pay 25 percent of their income for rent and DHA subsidizes any rental charges over that amount.

The DHA executive director said it was "unclear" whether suburbs must agree before the DHA can place tenants in private rental subsidy housing. Darnall said he has not sought approval from the suburbs before subsidizing tenants in those cities.

Other suburbs involved with DHA rent subsidies include Richardson, Wilmer and Farmers Branch.

Man Robbed, Beaten By Two 'Hippie-Types'

Two "hippies" beat up a 63-year-old man early today, stealing about $20 from his wallet.

Victor Turnage of 1719 14th St. was robbed at the coin laundry he manages in the 1700 block of Avenue K. Although he apparently escaped skull injury, he sustained bad lacerations on his head.

Turnage told police that the two men described as "hippie types" came into the washateria about 7:15 a.m. and asked for his money.

Turnage handed over his billfold and the men told him to go into the bathroom. Turnage refused, fearing that they meant to hurt him, and one of the men struck him several times with a crescent wrench.

He was left in a closet and the suspects escaped, apparently on foot. Turnage described the men as being in their mid-20s, about 160 pounds and five feet seven inches.

Beer-Wine Applicants File Friday (Finally)

By TERRI ANDERSON

If all goes as planned, Planoites will finally be able to buy beer and wine in at least a few places in the city by December 19.

The 60-day moratorium placed upon alcoholic beverage sales by the Plano City Council runs out tomorrow at 12:01 p.m. At that time, City Secretary Gene Edwards says he expects to be besieged with many local convenience and grocery store applicants wishing to take the first step to sell beer and wine.

Edwards' responsibility in the application process is "a minor one," he said. Applicants will go first to his office where Edwards will attest that the proposed location for alcoholic beverage sales meets all the criteria of a formulated, but as yet formally unadopted, city ordinance.

"I will attest that it (the store) is truly 300 feet from a church, hospital or school," Edwards explained. "The actual measurements will be checked by Code Enforcement, so I will simply ask them to check a particular site."

If the location meets the city's rules, the city secretary will put his signature on the first part of the application. Edwards said that he expects so many people to apply on Friday, that he may not be able to handle all the applications this week.

"I don't really see any major problem in waiting another day or two when it's waited months and years," he noted.

The next step, according to Texas' Alcoholic Beverage Code, is for the applicant to file his city secretary-approved request with the county clerk.

County Clerk James Webb in McKinney will then notify Judge Nathan E. White Jr. who must set a hearing on the request in not less than five days nor more than 10 days from the time the application is filed.

All applications received by the clerk between tomorrow and Wednesday can be heard by Judge White in a tentatively scheduled afternoon

Police Level Two Charges On Tarrant

The man who held police officers off for almost five hours Wednesday morning is still in Collin County Jail today.

Ronny Tarrant, 33, is being held on $50,000 bond for aggravated assault on a police officer and $10,000 bond for criminal mischief.

Tarrant is accused of firing at a police officer and striking a patrol unit. The car sustained heavy damage but the officer was unhurt.

The incident took place during a siege of an east Plano apartment. Tarrant barricaded himself inside his estranged wife's apartment after he threatened to kill her and the children.

Tarrant was taken prisoner after police forced their way into the apartment. He was treated for tear gas inhalation and scratches at Plano General Hospital but no one was seriously injured in the affair.

Lubbock Skies Should Be Clear For Saturday

Blue skies and temperatures in the 50s are forecast for Lubbock Saturday.

The National Weather Service said today that the weather "looks pretty good for a football game." The official forecast is for fair skies, winds from the south at 10-15 MPH and temperatures in the 50s.

At 8 a.m. today the temperature was 40 degrees with a cold front expected around noon to bring the temperature to the low 20s.

Another State Contender

The Plano Wildcats aren't the only local athletes involved in championship athletic competition this weekend. Rick Banks, a senior at Plano Senior High School, will vie for the state cross country championship Saturday at the University of Georgetown. Banks also qualified for state competition last year and is the only PSHS runner ever to qualify for a state meet. (Staff photo.)

Tennis Buffs Get 13 Courts

By PAM TROBOY

Plano's long-awaited tennis center will be opening soon.

An opening date has not yet been announced because of delivery delays, but park officials are hopeful that the center can be operational before Christmas.

The 13-court center has been made possible by $251,000 in a grant from the Bureau of Outdoor Recreation. Although the facility was approved by the voters in 1975, it would probably not have been built at this time without federal funds.

BOR gave the city $30,000 (half the purchase price) to acquire land at the Multi-Purpose Complex and $221,000 for construction. The federal government paid for half of the courts, made an allotment for landscaping and a play area and paid for a third of the cost of a pro shop.

Expandable to 21 courts, the center will be supervised by Ken Sumrow. Formerly the Plano Senior High tennis coach, Sumrow will operate the center on a contract basis.

Although paid a small salary, most of Sumrow's remuneration will come from tennis lessons and sales of merchandise in the pro shop. The city will also get a percentage of profits from the shop.

The store will have 1800 square feet stocked with tennis equipment and accessories such as rackets, grips, strings, shoes and clothes.

Although the shop is not ready to open, Sumrow has already received his Christmas stock and can be contacted at the park building.

Four assistant center supervisors will help Sumrow run the facility which will be open almost 100 hours a week.

Until March 31, the center will be open from 9 a.m. until 10:30 p.m., Monday through Saturday. On Sunday, the center will be open from noon until 10:30 p.m.

Summer hours which are effective through October 31 call for the center to open at 7:30 a.m. Monday through Saturday.

Residents will be charged $1 (75 cents for those 17 and under) before 6 p.m. on weekdays and $1.25 after 6 p.m. and on holidays and weekends. Passes are available. Non-residents will be charged $2 at all times.

The only holidays observed by the center will be Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's Day.

The concrete courts have been treated with a color and texture preparation identical to that on the senior high courts.

"This is as good a surface as any available," Sumrow testified. "The city has done a good job planning the center. It looks good and compares favorably to any center around here."

Bob Woodruff, director of Parks and Recreation Department, said planners examined all area centers and combined their best points at the Plano center. He believes that many of the problems reported by other centers have been avoided—hopefully without designing others in.

In addition to the 13 courts, a practice area equivalent to five half courts will be available with a rally board.

Sumrow notes that very few other centers have such a hitting board. The free area can be used for practice or picking up a game.

Woodruff pointed out that such an area is particularly important for beginners who are trying to practice the proper swing.

One of the most innovative parts of the center will be high pressure sodium lighting which is being used for the first time by PARD at the tennis center and athletic fields on the southwest corner of the MPC.

The new style lights have a very long life—24,000 hours compared to the 10,000 hours from the metal halides currently used.

The biggest advantage, however, is energy economy. Woodruff said the new lights are 30 percent more efficient than those now used.

Although slightly more expensive initially, the sodium lights pay for themselves over the long run in energy savings and by requiring little maintenance.

Woodruff also pointed out that they give off so much light that fewer fixtures are required, thus reducing the initial cost.

The lights will not affect residences planned for across the street, since the fixtures have been directed downward by precise mathematical formulas. The light will be where it's needed—on the courts—not reflected away.

Woodruff views the center as the focus of a comprehensive tennis program. All tennis activities will be handled through the center.

Residents will be able to reserve a court at the center or senior high anytime the center is open. Reservations will be taken by phone and players will have a choice of court including three designed to accommodate tournament play.

The three center courts—two in a pair and a single—will be used for tournament finals since seating will be available but they have had no other special treatment.

About 500 people already play regularly in the department's organized activities and Sumrow is hoping to attract even more.

The Parks and Recreation Department is using an innovative style of lighting on the new tennis center and complex of athletic fields. Both facilities are located at the Multi-Purpose Complex on Spring Creek Parkway between Alma Drive and US 75. The recreation areas will be lit by high pressure sodium lamps which are energy efficient, long lasting and bright. (Staff photo by Richard LaGow).

—Beer-Wine

hearing Dec. 19. Since his approval is the final step in the application procedure, approved stores will be free to begin sales of beer and wine of that date.

The judge noted that if a very large number of applications is received in the next few days, hearings may have to be spread out over several days on a "first-come, first-served" basis. He added that the hearings usually will be very brief.

"The commissioner of the Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission will be in daily contact with James Webb," White said. "He (the commissioner) will essentially be the investigating officer and will essentially make recommendations and be the state's witness as to matters in the applications."

"If he says the matters are true and correct, the applications will be approved," the judge continued. "If he finds there are misrepresentations of facts or reasons the applications should not be approved, then it will be up to (me) to decide who's telling the truth."

In acting on the applications, the county judge is required by law to give

"due consideration to any recommendations made by representatives of the County Commissioners (Court), the sheriff or county or district attorney.... or the mayor or chief of police of the incorporated city where the applicant seeks to conduct business."

The hearings, therefore, will not take on the character of public hearings whereby citizens may express their desires or objections concerning the applications.

Once all fees are paid ($15 for a beer and wine license and $10 for beer-only to the state and half those amounts to both the city and county) the approved applicants may begin stocking their stores.

In case the application is denied, the storeowners may file an appeal within 30 days to the district court.

Citizens approved the legal sale of beer and wine for off-premise consumption by a vote of 5,791 to 4,464 on October 8. On the following day, the Plano City Council called a 60-day moratorium to consider amendments for regulating the sales.

Following a public hearing last week, the council voted not to impose any further restrictions on the sales other than to follow state guidelines which prohibit stores from selling alcoholic beverages within 300 feet of a public hospital, public school or church, or within a residentially-zoned area.

SUFFRAGIST MARCH
Suffragists stormed the Capitol April 18, 1910, bringing a petition with 500,000 names to senators and representatives.

—Tennis Center

He pointed out that with the center he will be able to schedule league play for a particular time and day. Players will no longer have to search for a convenient time and place to get in the required game of the week. Sumrow also believes it will be easier to form spring and fall tournaments with interested players meeting at the center.

"We hope the tennis center will be more than just a place to play tennis," Woodruff stressed. "We want to have some place that people will come out and watch the players and drink a Coke when they have some free time."

A large lounge and shaded deck have been provided to promote that atmosphere, he said. A Big Toy, western-style creative playground, is also on the grounds to entertain younger children.

Now Showing

This marquee at the TilleyVision shop in central Plano displays the sentiments of most Plano Wildcat fans in the city. Local residents have been overcome with Wildcat "mania" following the high school team's amazing come-from-behind 29-28 victory over the Highland Park Scots last Saturday night in quarterfinals competition. The 'Cats face the Odessa Permian Panthers this Saturday at 2:30 p.m. in Jones Field in Lubbock. (Staff photo).

Toothless White Shark Nothing to Smile About

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — Putting false teeth in a dead shark sounds pretty strange.

Nevertheless, Robert Wholey paid a dentist $1,200 to implant 50 false teeth in Sally, a 17-foot, 2,400-pound great white shark that's on display at his local fish market.

"We believe this is the largest shark in the United States," said Wholey's son, Bob.

Wholey decided after seeing the movie "Jaws" that it would be a great idea to have a killer shark of his own.

"My father is very promotion-minded," Bob said. "We sent teletypes to all of our suppliers around the world offering a $1,000 reward for the largest white shark they could find."

Three months later, he said, they got a message from South Africa that their shark had been located. The shark, which had been harassing bathers in False Bay off the coast of Cape Town, was lured with meat to a fishing boat and corralled with a steel lasso after a 14-hour struggle.

It was frozen in Cape Town and shipped to the United States aboard the "African Dawn" But it arrived with no teeth.

"No teeth!" Wholey wailed at the time. "What good is a shark with no teeth?"

He suspects African longshoremen and fishermen, who consider shark's teeth good luck, had extracted them.

Having already sunk thousands of dollars into the venture, Wholey sought out a dentist willing to fashion a set of false teeth for the shark.

"When I called, the dentist thought I was crazy," he said.

Finally, Wholey found a dentist willing to do the job. The dentist thawed the head out, studied the composition of the shark's mouth and fashioned a set of plastic cuspid mounted on two-inch screws. It took him more than a month.

"The dentist said it was the most exciting job in his career," Bob Wholey said.

Friday Meeting

Reading Universal Subject

A math teacher should be as concerned about reading as a reading teacher, according to Dr. David L. Shepherd, author, speaker and professor, Hofstra University, Hempstead, N.Y.

Dr. Shepherd will speak on teaching reading in mathematics Friday at the Region 10 Education Service Center, 400 E. Spring Valley, Richardson.

Registration starts at 8:30 a.m. Elementary and secondary school principals will attend. Dr. Shepherd sees all teachers as reading to the science process of reading are interrelated according to Dr. Shepherd. He will demonstrate the techniques to be used in teaching reading in math and show how to apply the techniques to actual problems.

Dr. Shepherd recommends an informal reading inventory to determine the student's strengths and weaknesses in reading math.

Among books written by Dr. Shepherd are "Comprehensive School Reading Methods," published by Charles E. Merrill Book Publishers, "Effective Reading In Social Studies" and "Effective Reading In Science," published by Row, Petersen, and Company.

How can she set colors?

By Polly Cramer

POLLY'S PROBLEM

DEAR POLLY—Several years ago I bought expensive red towels for the bathroom and they are still "bleeding." I bought several more to fit into a certain color scheme so what can I do to set the color so they will not "bleed?" The saleslady could not help me with any suggestions.—ELUSA.

DEAR ELUSA—Most towels in deep colors are marked to be washed alone because of this problem but I have never been able to learn a definite solution for the problem. Most authorities scoff at the old-fashioned idea of always setting colors with salt before laundering for the first time. My mother always did this and felt it worked in the days before so many things were colorfast as they are today. How about this, readers? Have any of you discovered a good solution?—POLLY.

DEAR POLLY—I do hope the salmon processors do not read B.K.W.'s Pet Peeve concerning the bones and skin in canned salmon as that is my favorite part and I would surely miss them if they were left out. My Pet Peeve is with those people who assume their tastes and opinions on various matters are the only ones that count.—JULIE.

DEAR POLLY—I have a simple method for J.R. who wanted to know how to make a turtleneck sweater into a V-neck one with a pointed collar. Baste a contrasting color thread down the sweater front to the depth desired for the V. from the edge of the collar. Machine stitch one-quarter inch in on either side of this thread and across the lower edge. Cut along the original thread and the natural elasticity of the knit will open to form a V and open pointed collar very flattering and especially for us short necked folks. The cut edge can be overcast or rolled under and blind stitched. A blanket stitch in a contrasting color yard is also attractive.—BILLIE.

DEAR POLLY—When painting a large outside porch I used a long handled roller rather than a brush and found it worked wonderfully, was a time and back saver.—DAVID.

DEAR POLLY—I have always had trouble opening a bottle of pop until I discovered using an old fashioned nut cracker. It grasps the bottle firmly and you have it open in a hurry. Also use it to return the cap. Such caps often have rough places that can cut one and this eliminates that trouble and always having to look for hubby to open a bottle.

When I have potatoes on hand that should be cooked I boil them in a small amount of water. These cooked potatoes are kept in the refrigerator and are peeled and grated as needed for hash browns. Be sure the skillet is very hot and the grease, too, and brown one side and turn and brown the other side.

While hubby and children are still in bed try getting up early and going for a brisk walk. You will be surprised what this will do for you both mentally and physically.—BARBARA.

HOW CAN YOU TELL?

BY THE BATS!

ASTRO-GRAPH Bernice Bede Osol

For Friday, Dec. 9, 1977

Dec. 9, 1977

The year ahead could be a very adventuresome one for you. You'll gain knowledge through new experiences and contacts. Some of this may be a result of long-distance travel.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Unless you make a game of your serious goals today, you may find them dull and pedestrian. If you can make light of them, you'll overcome. Like to find out more of what lies ahead for you? Send for your copy of Astro-Graph Letter by mailing 50 cents for each sign and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope to Astro-Graph, P.O. Box 489, Radio City Station, N.Y. 10019. Be sure to specify your birth sign.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Put aside your anxieties that one who is indebted to you won't come through. It's better than even money that your fears are groundless.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Social forums should not be used for attempting to transact business today. Chances are good that those you're clinking teacups with aren't interested.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) You'll need more than charm and good looks to cut the mustard today. It's going to take the three big E's—Energy, Effort and Enthusiasm.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Sometimes you have an unfortunate tendency to do the right things for the wrong people. This could be one of those days.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Normally you're a plodder and will hang in there at all costs. Today you get discouraged when all it takes is a little extra push to get over the hump.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Keep your priorities in order today. Your first responsibilities are to your family, then to outsiders. You may be tempted to reverse the order.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) You're not too willing to put yourself out for others today. You'll want to make sure there's something in it for you.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Put a lock on your purse today and hide the key. Rather than finding ways to spend money, think of ways that you can add to your resources.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Loved ones may lean on you a little heavily today and this might pique you a bit. Think of what they've done for you. You'll soon change your tune.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) You may be guilty of something today very foreign to your nature—prejudging others. If you are aware of this, you certainly won't do it.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) By all means, try to avoid parasitic types today. They'll really turn you off. They're diametrically opposed to your generous nature.

Ki-Annes Gifts

Members of the Plano Ki-Annes Club have chosen Plano Day Care Center as the beneficiary of the newly-organized club's first service projects. The 25 members, all wives of members of the Plano Kiwanis Club, donated a tricycle, rocking-bouncing horse and Big Wheel to the center. The presen-

January Meeting

Federation Forming

The planned low-income housing project in east Plano and zoning issues on the west side are among concerns which have prompted interest in a federation of at least 10 homeowner and civic associations here.

Dennis Schultze of 2301 Regal Road said representatives of the associations selected a steering committee Tuesday night to study formation of the federation. The representatives met at Christ United Methodist Church and will meet again in early January.

Schultze said the association members have not decided upon a plan of activity. But he added the associations were encouraged to band together because of "the number of city issues which seem to be striking at the heartland of the community" including the housing project and zoning issues.

He said association members would like to become "involved before issues become crises" and he described the planned federation as "a communications link" between city government and residents.

Associations represented at the meeting have a combined membership of more than 2400 persons, Schultze said. The associations are Audubon, Country Place, Douglas Community Council, Greenhollow, Hunter's Glen, Kimberlea, Parker Road West, Plano Area Concerned Citizens, Rustic Park and Stratford West.

Other homeowner associations are invited to join the federation, Schultze added, and may contact him at 424-3817.

Animal Licenses On Sale

The 1978 dog licenses go on sale Monday, December 12, at the following locations: Plano Health Department, 1106 East 16th Street and the City Animal Shelter, 4900 East 14th Street (FM 544 East).

City Ordinance No. 66-3-3 requires that all dogs within the city be licensed on or before the first day of January of each year.

In order to obtain the $1 dog tag, a current rabies vaccination certificate, issued by a licensed veterinarian, must be presented at the time the license is purchased.

Texans Spending More For Christmas Season

By STEVEN R. REED
United Press International

Texas shoppers, reflecting the state's strong climate for consumption, are spending more of their money—even with inflation considered—for Christmas purchases this year than last.

A UPI survey showed the state's economy is so healthy Texans began shopping earlier, before Thanksgiving in many areas, and are buying the "big ticket" items which push retailers toward record sales.

But less expensive shirts, dolls and "Star Wars" games also are enjoying "phenomenal" sales.

Statistics compiled by the Federal Reserve Bank in Dallas showed, for example, El Paso's November retail sales increased 5 percent compared to November 1976 and 29 percent for the week ending Nov. 26, the most recent figures available.

The Federal Reserve and UPI sampled the state's best known retail names—Sears, Penney's, Montgomery Wards, Sanger-Harris, Sakowitz, Joske's, Neiman-Marcus, Foley's, Frost Brothers and Titch's—and found improved sales throughout Texas.

"It looks like a good Christmas season, not spectacular, but very profitable," said Bill Gren, a research specialist with the Federal Reserve.

—In Dallas retail sales increased 10 and 14 percent for the last week in November and for the month, respectively.

—In Houston the totals were plus 7 percent for the week and plus 10 percent for the month.

—San Antonio merchants enjoyed an 8 percent increase for the week and 5 percent for the month.

—In Austin, sales improved plus 13 and 12 percent for the week and month.

"This indicates to me that retail sales are pretty strong," Green said. "Certainly prices are higher this year than last year because of inflation, but not 14 percent (Dallas monthly), so it shows a real increase in unit and dollar sales.

"We're going to set a record on total dollar sales just because of inflation. Sales have been strongest all year in Dallas and Austin, a little weaker in Houston, but that is deceptive.

"Houston had a very good 1976. When you take current (sales) versus previous and if you have good previous year, it's hard to show spectacular growth. In absolute dollar sales that is the biggest market in Texas."

Green said the economic outlook for Texas was strong, prompting residents to "treat themselves or their families to a special Christmas."

He attributed the boom to low unemployment and continued business and population growth.

In Austin, the manager of a Penney's store said sales were considerably better than last year.

"We find they (shoppers) are buying lots of big items—microwave ovens are real big, electronics such as TV's and stereo component systems are real hot," said Ray Kilgore. "TV games are just phenomenal. In small appliances, donut makers are real big. In wearing apparel, flannel shirts are just phenomenal. Coats and other cold weather gear are moving slow because we haven't had any cold weather."

Stanley Moore, owner of Over the Rainbow, an Austin toy store, said sales were 20-25 percent ahead of last year.

He sold all his $180 kiddie motorcycles (2-speed, disc brakes, battery operated) and said sales were good on stuffed animals costing $80-90.

And then there are the spinoffs from Star Wars, the year's most successful movie.

"We had a Star Wars board game ($7.95) that we've sold out twice," Moore said. "We never learned how to play the game and only one customer even asked how it was played. All that mattered was that it had that name on it."

"Everybody comes in wanting to know what (Star Wars items) you've got. We had some book type packets of Star Wars blueprints—diagrams of spaceships and things. Those sold right away. People want models, but no models are available."

Lubbock toy store manager Phil Hixon said anything associated with Star Wars was selling well but noted "there sure is a big increase in educational toys."

"They (shoppers) don't tend to be as price conscious as they used to. They don't mind paying more if they feel it is worth it. They're tending to buy high ticket items. They're being more quality conscious."

Jacille Smith, standing in line at a Lubbock shopping center so her children could see Santa Claus, said her family is spending a little more this Christmas than last.

"The gifts are nicer and we're able to afford a little more," she said.

She said the mild winter also affected her Christmas spirit.

"I'm not as much in the Christmas spirit as if there was snow on the ground."

Improved sales put Foley's Vice President A.J. Gallarano of Houston in the Christmas mood.

"Volume is running ahead of last year," he said. "I was speculating that one reason that this year's overall sales are better than last year is the fact that money is not as tight. The consumer seems to feel more comfortable in shopping, in indulging themselves in the variety of the merchandise that's available."

THE RADIO HOBBYIST

By Frederick O. Maia
KKB-0924 - WSUTT
Executive Director, American Radio Council

(Q) HOW LONG SHOULD THE COAXIAL CABLE BE BETWEEN THE CB RADIO AND THE ANTENNA?

(A) In theory, it can be any length since it is not normally considered a "tuned" element. A 50 ohm coaxial cable cut to two feet or two hundred feet should maintain its characteristic impedance. In actual practice, however, due to specific antenna locations and transmission (coax) line installations the cable will respond unfavorably. This causes difficulty in properly loading power into the antenna. To eliminate such problems, use coax lengths which are multiples of electrical half-wave lengths. An electrical half-wave is different than a normal half wave in space in that radio waves travel differently in wire. At CB frequencies, an electrical half-wave is 11 feet 10 inches. In selecting a cable length, choose lengths which are 11 feet 10 inches or multiples thereof, such as 23 feet 8 inches, 35 feet 6 inches, etc.

(Q) HOW MANY DIFFERENT CLASSES OF "HAM" LICENSES ARE THERE AND WHAT ARE THE REQUIREMENTS OF EACH?

(A) At present there are five different classes of amateur radio licenses. The first is the Novice that allows 250 watts power on 4 different frequency bands. This license (issued for 2 years) can not be renewed. By the end of two years you should have graded up to the Technician class. This allows "voice" privileges on the higher frequency VHF bands plus the Novice Morse Code privileges. You are not allowed to communicate by voice with the Novice license. The General Class license is next which allows all amateur radio privileges except the use of special frequency bands segments reserved for the Advanced and top-of-the line, Amateur Extra Class licenses. Power levels (except for Novice) are authorized at 1,000 watts maximum.

A written and Morse Code Test is given at various degrees of difficulty for each class. The written test covers electronic theory and radio rules. The Morse Code requirements for each license class are: Novice and Technician-5 words per minute; General and Advanced-13 words per minute; Amateur Extra Class requires proficiency at 20 words per minute. All licenses (except the Novice) are issued for 5 years and are renewable for life without retaking any further examinations.

(Q) EXACTLY WHAT IS BLEEDOVER AND HOW CAN IT BE PREVENTED?

(A) "Bleedover" is strictly a CB derived term. It is a slang expression for simultaneously transmitting on more than one channel at a time and is illegal. It can be caused by a very close signal that overloads your CB transceiver or it could be that your radio does not have a very good selectivity filter. In this case, the incoming signal is not limited to the appropriate channel width. More often, however, bleedover (or, "splatter" as it is called by the ham) is caused by a radio that is overmodulated. FCC regulations prohibit modulation levels in excess of 100 percent for this very reason. Improperly set power microphones are the major cause of CB radio bleedover.

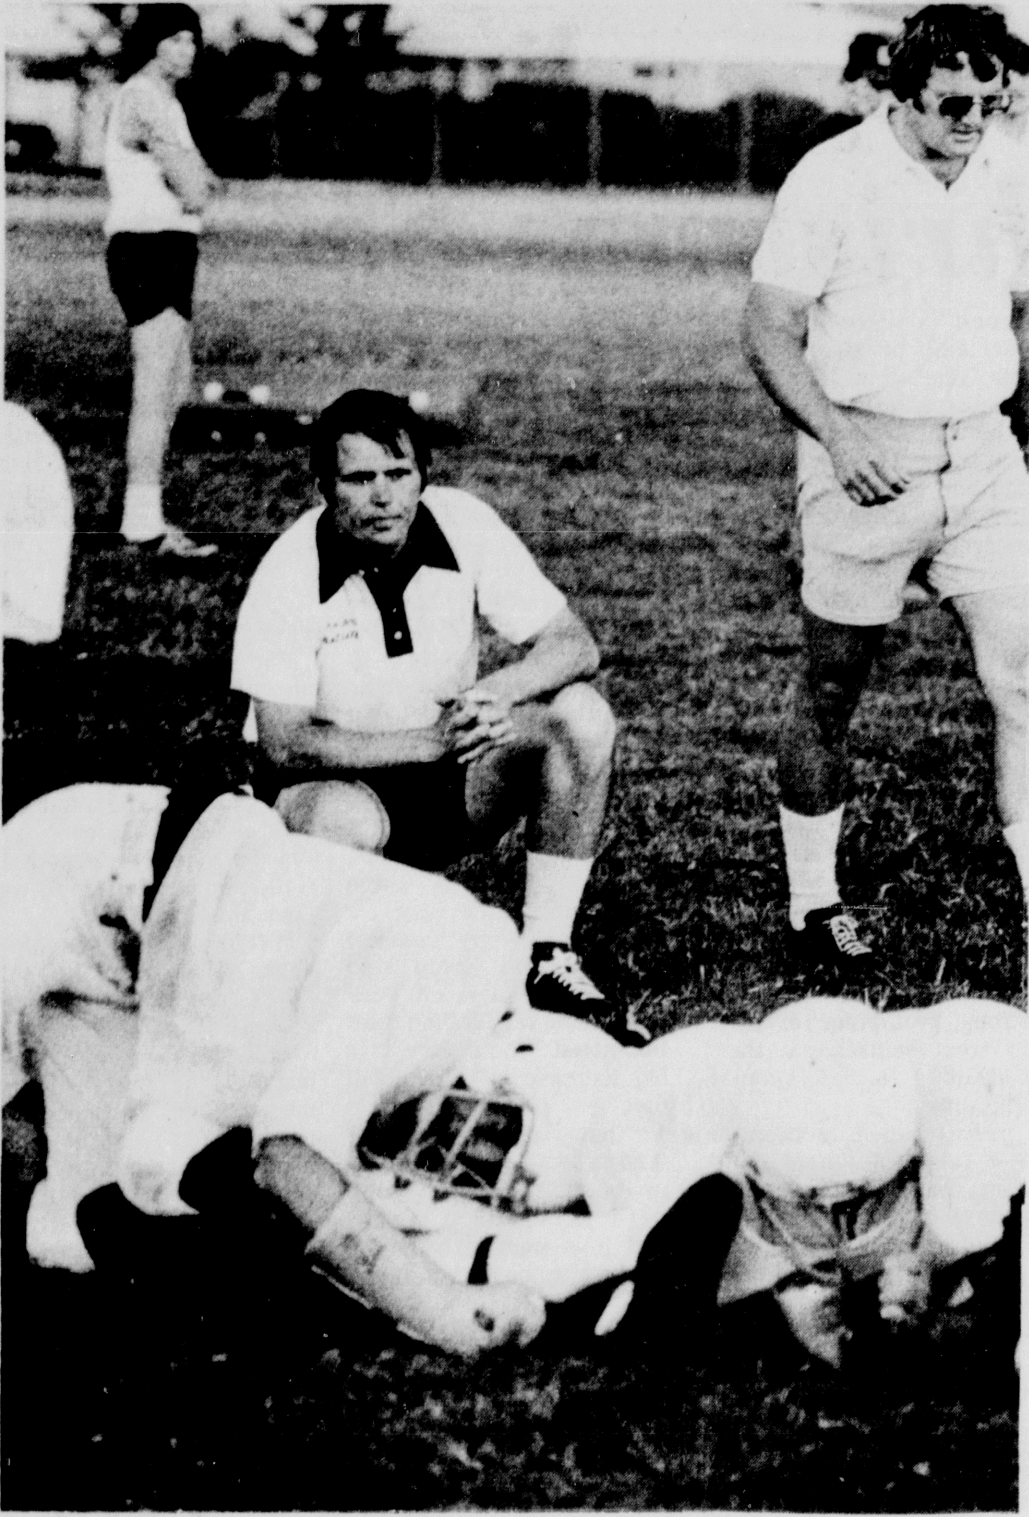

(Q) A CB'ER IS PROHIBITED BY LAW FROM ADJUSTING HIS RADIO-YET A TEN YEAR OLD THAT GETS A NOVICE HAM LICENSE IS ALLOWED TO. WHAT GIVES?

(A) Good question. It is a fact that a CB'er without a Second or First Class Commercial Radio-Telephone License is prohibited from making any adjustments to his radio that might affect the radiated signal. Amateur "ham" radio, however, is a hobby of electronic experimenting and even building your own radio is encouraged. A Novice operator is allowed to repair, build or adjust his equipment without limitation. He must, of course, adhere to the technical standards and purity of radio emissions as set forth in FCC Rules, Part 97 Subpart C. It is assumed by the FCC that if the amateur can pass the electronic theory examination, that he is qualified to make the adjustments. Since the test is extremely easy (and has even been successfully passed by a four year old) this is not always the case, but this is the assumption made.

If you have any questions or comments regarding the radio hobby, please direct them to "THE RADIO HOBBYIST" column in care of this newspaper. Universally appealing questions will be covered in this column.

The AMERICAN RADIO COUNCIL is a national organization of radio hobbyists that are interested in improving their communications skills, technical knowledge and receiving increased radio privileges. For further information write: P. O. Box # 1171; Garland, Texas 75040.

Kimbrough Eyes Mojo

'Odessa Permian is a lot like us.'

Coach Tommy Kimbrough finds it hard to overlook the obvious.

"Odessa Permian is a lot like us," said the second year head football coach of the Plano Wildcats. "They are just like us in that they barely got by their district opponents. They didn't win their district games by a very big margin. But, in the playoffs, they have beaten some impressive teams by some impressive scores."

That has been the saga this season of both Plano and Odessa. Plano scrapped their way through District 13-AAAA and finished as co-champs with Sherman. Plano had the district's representation rights and responded with a bi-district win over mammoth Lufkin, beat defensive-oriented Conroe in the regionals and then upset Highland Park with their character.

Odessa also scratched their way through District 5-AAAA and then pounced on Denton, beat Arlington Lamar and last week edged Lubbock Monterrey.

Odessa is also a defensive-oriented team much like Conroe.

"I would compare their defense with Conroe's although they are different type defenses. Odessa has a reading, disciplined defense while Conroe's was more aggressive," said Coach Kimbrough.

"The thing that impresses me most about their defense is their quickness. They are a reading defense that will stunt some. They have only given up something like five points a game. That is impressive."

"They came out of a strong district just like we did. Some people think their district is the strongest in the state," added Coach Kimbrough.

Defensively, Odessa runs a 29 formation which resembles the 4-3. It is the same defensive formation that Highland Park used against Plano with some variables thrown in.

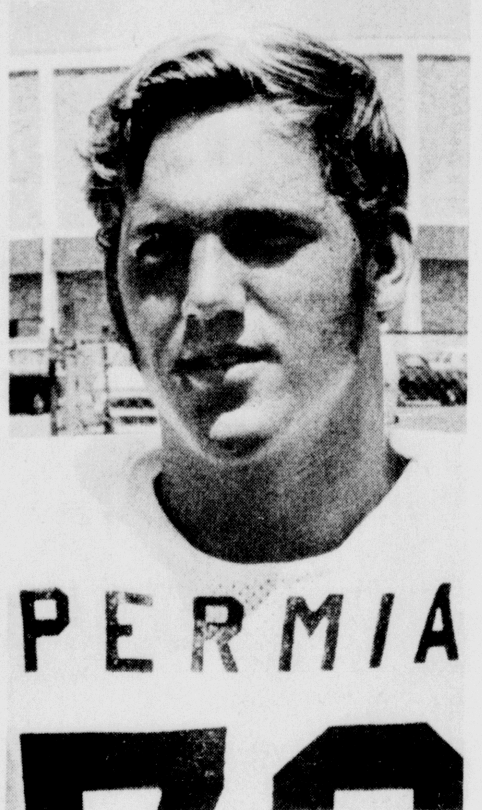

"Sometimes they will run an even front, then split some and they will sometimes run an eight-man front. They will change up their defense. Basically, they stick to a 29 and make changes from that. Highland Park ran the 29 but they stayed in a seven-man front," said Coach Kimbrough.

Keys to that defense are defensive tackle Tommy Sager at 205 lb., middle linebacker Byron Taylor at 205 lb. and defensive tackle Raymond Stanley at 195 lb.

Offensively, Odessa operates from a wing-set, similar to what Lake Highlands used against Plano early in the season.

TOMMY SAGER
Def. Tackle

RAYMOND STANLEY
Def. Tackle

"Lake Highlands is very similar to Odessa's formation. It is an offense that isn't used by a lot of people. It is the same offense that Brownwood uses with success," said Coach Kimbrough.

For state playoff observers, Brownwood is playing Dickinson for the Class AAA State Championship this week.

Odessa has an offense that controls the ball. They run a lot of sweeps with a lot of miss direction plays," Coach Kimbrough said.

Offensive standouts are running back Greg Lambert, 175 lb. who Kimbrough labels as outstanding speedster, quarterback Vince Vines, a good thrower and runner, and tackle Stan Williams.

Coach Kimbrough feels Plano has three good reasons to be motivated against Odessa:

—"We have to forget about the game with Highland Park and work for the Odessa game."

—"Odessa has such a tradition. They've been in the state finals five times."

—"Harris Ratings has Odessa number one in the state."

I feel those are three pretty good motivators," said Coach Kimbrough.

Harris, a poll service that Kimbrough subscribes to, has Plano ranked fifth last week. This week's ratings weren't available.

PSHS Wrestlers Top Bishop Lynch

Coach Taylor Webb's Varsity wrestling team at Plano Senior High ran their unbeaten string of dual matches to four with a 35-23 win Tuesday night over Bishop Lynch.

The matches were held at Plano Senior High's Activities Building and Bishop Lynch almost caught Plano off guard.

"We had a tough match last Thursday against a district opponent and we have another tough match this Thursday with Carrollton Turner. We were looking ahead to Turner who is a state championship contender and Bishop Lynch almost slipped up on us," Coach Webb said.

Plano won their initial five matches to take a 23-0 lead but then slipped, losing the next four matches, and Bishop Lynch began to challenge Plano's lead, 23-17.

But Plano won both the 167 lb. bout and 185 lb. bout by pins for 12 points and to ice the dual match away.

"A real good job was done by our kids in the lower weights," Coach Webb said. "Then we had it pretty tough from 132 through 155."

Richard Burgess at 105 lb., George Ridpath at 119 lb., Charlie Myers at 167 lb. and Jimmy Rommel at 185 lb.

each won by pins that proved deciding factors in Plano's dual match win.

Other keys were superior decision wins by Joe Belmonte at 112 lb. and John Murray at 126 lb.

Plano's next match is against Carrollton Turner on Thursday at Plano Senior High's Activities Building, 7 p.m. Plano will also participate in the Lake Highlands Invitational Tournament Friday and Saturday.

Kings Table Holds Lead In Bowling

Kings Table holds an ever so slight lead in the Wednesday Night Ladies Get Acquainted League at the Plano Bowling Lanes.

Kings Table leads by a half game over Pin Ups. Pin Ups, however, hold a marginal lead in total pins, 20130 to 18850 for Kings Table.

Fran Roth had the highest score in a series with a 547. She was followed by Carol Bruenning with a 510 and Mardy Call with a 494.

Fran also took the single game honors with a 202. She was followed by Nancy Luczycki with a 195 and Carol Bruenning with a 194.

Following are the standings going into League play Wednesday, Dec. 7:

Stuart Molder lost his match in the 138 lb. class Tuesday night to his Bishop Lynch opponent, however, Plano went on to win the dual match, 35-23. Plano is 4-0 in wrestling dual matches this season. (Staff Photo by Mike Newman).

W/V Beats Van Alstyne

Coach Vince Garcia's wrestling team comprised of both Williams and Vines high school students, took wins in both "A" and "B" competition Tuesday night over Van Alstyne.

In the "A" matches, Vines won big, 45-18, with seven match pins.

Vines also won one match on a decision by Mark Townsend in the 105 lb. class over Chapman.

Losing their matches were Guy Fugate in the 132 lb. class by a pin to White, Mark Santowski in the 145 lb. class by a pin to Burke and Jeff Thompson by a pin to Anderson in the 167 lb. class.

In the "B" team division, Plano edged Van Alstyne, 18-12. Doug Jameson won at 98 lb. by a pin over Gardner, Dean Jameson won by a pin at 112 lb. over Eafon and Jeff Murray won by a pin in the 138 lb. class over Gee.

Losing were Mark Townsend at 105 lb. by a pin to Wilson and Dean Jameson in the 119 lb. class by a pin to Maxwell.

Allen 7th Loses, 24-14

Leading 9-6 at halftime the Allen seventh grade girls basketball team managed only five points in the second half to lose to McKinney 24-14 Monday night.

"I was somewhat disappointed in the way we played until I totaled the scorebook," said Coach P.D. Thomas. "We shot only 18 percent from the field' (6 of 34) to McKinney's 23 percent (12 of 52)," he continued.

Brenda Adams led the team in scoring with five points. She was followed by Tina Sherman with four points, Erin Hillary with two points, Kim Darnell with two points and Tamara McGraw with one point.

Eagle Girls Topped

Allen's eighth grade girls basketball team defeated McKinney 28-24 Monday night with Sylvia Woods the leading scorer with ten points.

It was a close game for the Eagles who lead by no more than two points at the end of each quarter.

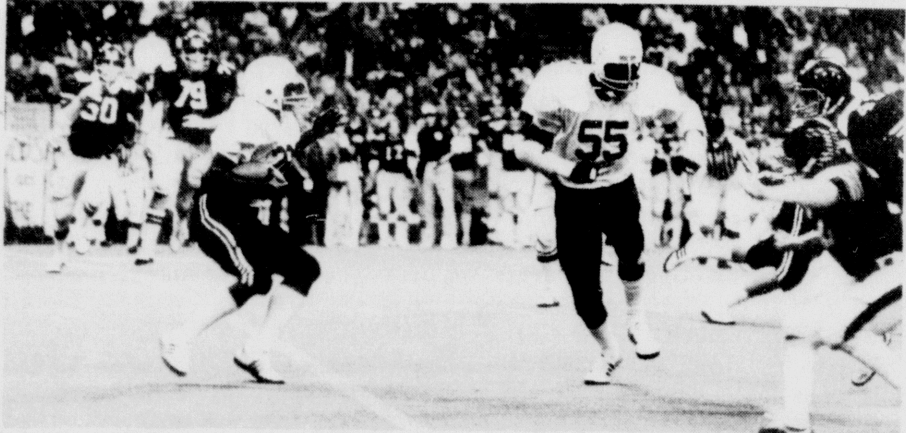

Scoring behind Woods were Chris Doherty with nine points, Diane Purcell with five points and Kelly Lamb rounded out the scoring with four points.

"The girls played a good game both on offense and defense," said Coach Shelia Holland.

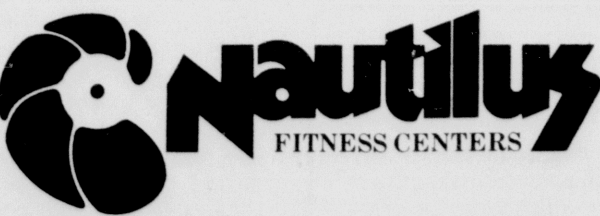

Dr. Michael R. Martin is proud to announce the opening of his office, The Martin Chiropractic Center for the general practice of Chiropractic, 1100 W. 15th St., Suite 245, Plano, Texas 75075, 424-4616.

Burleson Beats Plano, 53-41

'Cat Girls Drop Sixth Game

Plano Senior High School's girls basketball team lost their sixth game in seven outings Monday night losing to Burleson 53-41 at the Activities Building at the Senior High.

"It's not like we're playing teams that aren't that good and losing, we're playing some really good teams," said Coach Rita Barnes.

"We still haven't gotten it together," she added.

The Wildcats trailed by nine points, 17-8, after one quarter Monday night, but trailed at the half only 28-23. The girls were outscored 25-18, however, in the second half.

Leading scorer for the girls was Laurie Van Sice with 17 points. She was followed closely by Melissa Bland with 14 points.

Also in on the scoring was Mary Jo Vanderlinden with six points and Kim Cockrill with four points.

The JV girls improved on their record to 3-5 after defeating Burleson 36-27, Monday night.

Their leading scorer was Platt with 14 points and Braxton and Hargraves both with eight points. Also in on the scoring effort were Schaefer with four points and Manawa with two points.

"Mentally we're not ready," warned Coach Barnes, "but that comes from inexperience."

Plano finds themselves against Midway in the first round of the UTA Tournament, Thursday thru Saturday in Arlington.

Midway was in the state finals last year in class 4A against eventual state champ South Oak Cliff.

"We'll come around....it's just a matter of when," shrugged Coach Barnes. "We begin district Monday."

Allen Girls Win, 43-41 Over Celeste

Allen's varsity girls basketball team won their sixth game of the season in seven outings by downing Celeste Monday night in Allen 43-41.

Janet Hall was the team's leading scorer with 26 points. She was followed by Toni Hedgecoxe with ten points, Tracy Lewis with four points and Lisa McMakin with three points.

"We're playing well," said

Coach Rick Clements, "we're not turning the ball over much."

The girls won the Frisco Tournament over the weekend by winning three games.

In their initial game of the tourney they defeated Celina by a score of 37-14, with Hall and Belinda Seaman leading the Eagles. Hall had 18 points and Seaman had 11 points.

In their second contest the Eagles defeated host Frisco 49-26. Hedgecoxe was the leading scorer with 20 points. She was followed by Hall with 17 points.

In the championship game

the girls defeated Krum 45-43 in a real thriller.

Hall was the game's leading scorer with 33 points.

The highlight of the tourney, besides winning it, came when Sakeena White and Hall were named to the All-tournament team.

Secks On Top In AM Bowling

In the Thursday AM Bowling League held at the Plano Bowling Lanes the top three teams, Secks, Frisky Frolics and the Firecrackers continue to go neck and neck over the other seven teams.

Dorothy Allen bowled a 202 for the high game and Lonnie Worley and Cheryl Pratt were both over their game average by 50 pins.

Following are the standings going into Thursday, Dec. 8:

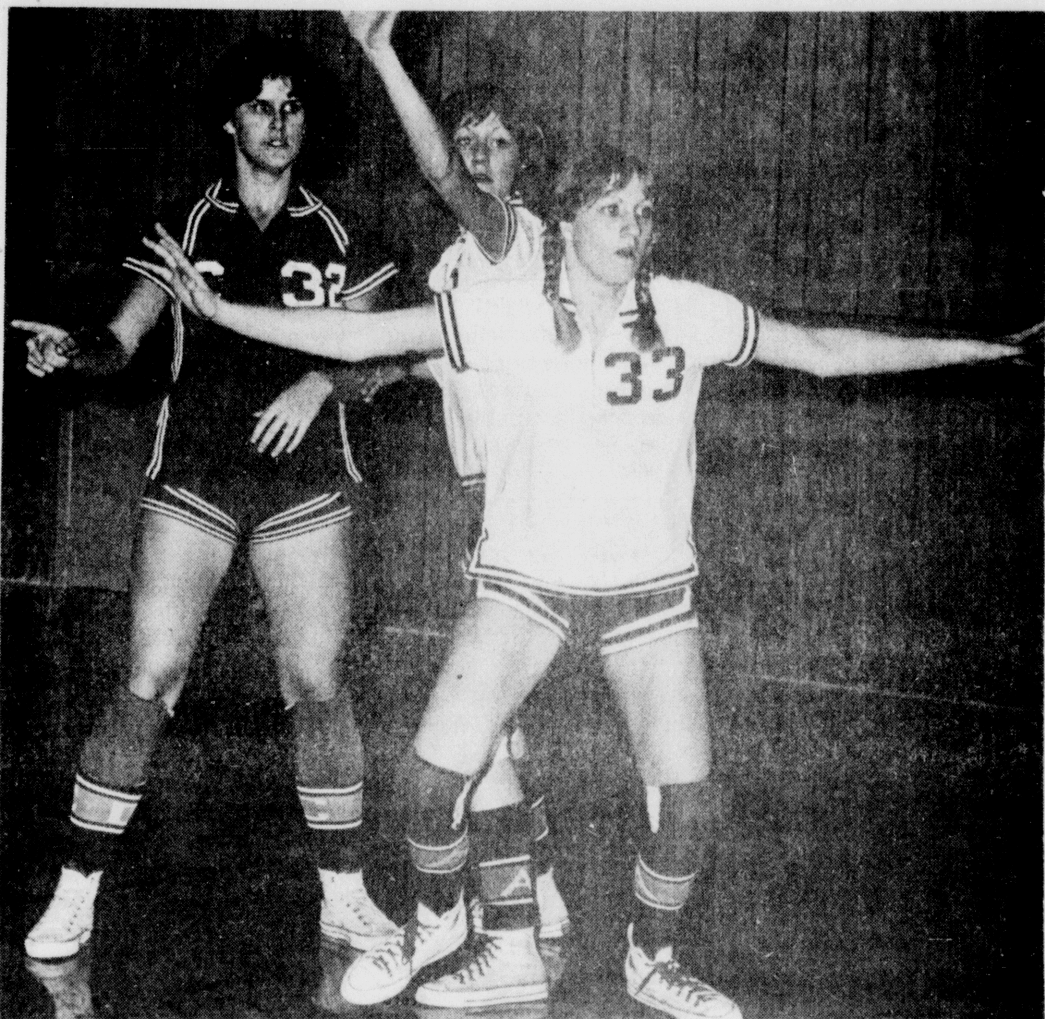

1. Secks
2. Frisky Frolics
3. Firecrackers
4. Pin Poppers
5. Alley Oops
6. Blue Chips
7. Alley Stompers
8. High Pockets
9. Schelpes
10. Misfits

Gina Patterson continued her hot shooting with 32 points. She was followed by Charlotte Ball with six points, Kim Terlingo with six points, Debbie Howell with five points, Cindy Beville with two points and Janice Carnell with one point.

Vines Females Beat Ursuline

The girls took a 17-4 first quarter lead and continued to move the ball well. In the third quarter the Vikings led by 35 points, 48-15, but a late rally in which Ursuline scored 16 points, more than their three previous quarters, saw the Vines lead vanquish.

Ann Carroll and Vicki Vaughan, immediately behind her, of Allen, guard a Celeste forward in their game Monday night in which Allen won 43-41. It was the Eagles sixth win of the season against one loss. (Staff photo by Richard LaGow).

McKinney Beats Eagle Varsity

In their fourth game against a Class 3A school the Allen Eagles have lost as many, as they dropped a 59-34 decision to McKinney Tuesday night in McKinney. It was the Eagles second game against McKinney. They dropped their first game this season to McKinney by a score of 57-40.

Allen's record is now 2-5. Jeff Dugger was the Eagles leading scorer with 16 points. He was followed by Zenford Jones with 12 points, Joe Rine with four points and Rich Koepke with two points.

On the weekend the Eagles participated in the Frisco Tournament in which they placed second.

They defeated Celina 47-37 in their first outing for their first win of the season. Jones was the leading scorer with 15 points.

In the second contest the Eagles defeated host team Frisco 43-37. Again Jones was the leading scorer, this time with 28 points.

In their third contest, the finals, the Eagles lost 60-46 to Krum.

The Eagles finished second in the tournament this year and they also did last year.

Six foot six inch Jones was named to the All-tournament team, his sixth in three years.

Gentry Paces Allen Frosh

Freshman Reggie Gentry scored 20 points for the Allen Eagles freshman team in route to a 42-32 victory over Quinlan Tuesday night.

The Eagles trailed by one point at the half but came out shooting in the third quarter to outscore the Quinlan freshman team, 12-6, to take the lead for good.

Others in on the scoring were Benji Dean with eight points and Terry Byram also with eight points. Alan Griffin got four points and David McRoberts got two points.

"Gentry did a great job in the second half," said Coach Steve Williams, "he had only one point at the half but came on strong in the second half."

Monday night the Eagles weren't quite as lucky as they were defeated rather handily by McKinney 82-39.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 8

1:00 (11) The Movie Murderer (70) Arthur Kennedy, Warren Oates. Insurance claims inspector and bright young detective join forces in tracking down an arsonist whose specialty is the bombing of airplanes in flight.

3:00 (8) Journey to the Center of Time (67) Scott Brady, Gigi Perreau. A group of travelers caught in a time warp visit the prehistoric jungles of one million B.C. and battle aliens from outer space in the year 5000.

7:00 (4) The Waltons Olivia mystifies the entire Walton family when she suddenly sinks into depression and becomes extremely short-tempered. And when she abruptly decides to take a trip, alone, her loved ones start believing there is something drastically wrong.

8:00 (5) Paul Simon Special The singer-composer, one of the most highly esteemed figures in contemporary American music, headlines musical and comedy segments with his guests, Lily Tomlin, Chevy Chase, Art Garfunkel, Charles Grodin, Eric Idle, Twyla Tharp and her dance company and the Jesse Dixon Singers.

9:00 (4) The Heisman Trophy Since 1935, the most prestigious honor in college football has been the Heisman Trophy, and this year, for the first time, the announcement of the winner will serve as the occasion for an entertainment and awards special. Elliot Gould and O.J. Simpson, himself a Heisman Trophy winner, will host the special.

9:00 (11) Great Northfield Minnesota Raid (72) Cliff Robertson, Robert Duvall. Failing to secure amnesty, Cole Younger and Jesse James gangs decide to rob the "biggest bank west of the Mississippi" at Northfield, Minnesota.

10:30 (8) Beloved Infidel (59) Gregory Peck, Deborah Kerr. Story of the romance between F. Scott Fitzgerald and Sheila Graham after his luck had run out, with her trying to help him regain his status as a great writer.

11:00 (4) The Firechasers Chad Everett stars as the top investigator of an insurance company, who, aided by a reporter and a photographer, is roped into a series of fires that have destroyed a number of buildings in the same neighborhood.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 9

1:00 (11) Love Laughs At Andy Hardy (47) Lewis Stone, Mickey Rooney. Andy is spurned when a college sweetheart asks him to be best man at her marriage to her guardian.

3:00 (8) Cyborg 2087 (67) Michael Rennie, Wendell Corey, Karen Steele. Small ruling class dominates a world consisting of Cyborgs, beings who are part man and part machine.

7:00 (8) The Year Without A Santa Claus - Mrs. Claus is at her wits end because Santa has awakened with a cold and wants a holiday in this animated special.

7:30 (5) The Norliss Tapes Angie Dickinson, Claude Akins. A woman is terror-stricken when the figure of her deceased husband confronts her in her own home. She fires wildly at him with a shotgun and later tries to convince para-psychology lecturer and author David Norliss that it had actually happened. Together they risk their lives in a psycho-horror-suspense story.

8:00 (4) White Lightning Burt Reynolds, Jennifer Billingsly. Convicted moonshiner agrees to work with authorities when he learns that his kid brother has been murdered by a crooked sheriff, and risks his life when moonshiners find him out.

8:00 (8) Carpenters At Christmas A special starring Karen and Richard Carpenter with guest stars Harvey Korman, Kristy McNichol, and Burr Tillstrom.

9:00 (11) Silent Running (72) Bruce Dern, Ron Rifkin. Botanist in space is tending specially grown space gardens in hopes of preserving them for replanting on Earth, when Earth's atmosphere will again be able to sustain plant growth.

9:00 (5) Quincy Jack Klugman stars in the title role as the restless Los Angeles medical examiner whose pathology investigations frequently take him into the realm of police work.

10:15 (8) The Sun Also Rises (57) Tyrone Power, Ava Gardner. Story of people caught up in the turbulent currents of the "lost generation" people who lived as though they were about to die. Based on the novel by Ernest Hemingway.

11:00 (4) M*A*S*H After a wave of burglaries hit the 4077th Unit suspicion falls on Hawkeye when a number of the stolen articles are found in his footlocker. Hawkeye is threatened with court-martial, and Radar is assigned to keep him under surveillance.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 10

7:00 (4) Dr. Seuss The mini-heated Grinch, the miserly Scussian Scrooge known for the arsenic in his soul and the termites in his smile, is back again trying his elongated green hand at his annual grand larceny.

7:00 (11) The Snow Goose Set in England during World War II, this program tells a bitter-sweet tale of a young girl and a crippled artist whose vulnerabilities to life prove no less than that of the wounded snow goose they save. Starring Richard Harris.

7:00 (5) Gentle Giants Of The Pacific Richard Widmark narrates this Annapolis Ltd. special on the endangered humpback whales. SAL cinematographer Al Giddings filmed the story of the "singing whales" -- so-called because of the resonant sounds they emit as they communicate -- off the coast of Hawaii, and at Glacier Bay in Alaska.

7:30 (4) Frosty, The Snowman This animated cartoon, narrated by Jimmy Durante, follows the adventures of a snowman that comes to life. Professor Hinkel is bound and determined to retrieve the magical hat that transformed the schoolchildren's snowman into the living Frosty.

8:00 (5) W.C. Fields and Me (76) Rod Steiger, Valerie Perrine. A period in the life of the interperate master of comedy is re-created, with particular emphasis on his tempestuous affair with Carlotta Monti (Perrine), the young showgirl who became his mistress and, later, wrote the book on which the film is based.

9:00 (4) Kojak Special guest star Diane Baker plays Irene Van Patton, a woman Kojak almost married in 1969, whom he hopes will not jog his memory, as he is forced to reopen a case he had hoped was closed because he believes he may have killed the wrong man.

10:30 (8) Portrait of a Mobster (61) Vic Morrow, Leslie Parrish. The rise and fall of gangster Dutch Schultz.

12:53 AM (8) The Opposite Sex (56) June Allyson, Dolores Gray. Kindly interference of female friends drives happily-married producer's wife off to Reno, leaving her husband to a predatory show-girl.

12:00 (5) Bride of the Monster Bela Lugosi, Loretta King. A weird wizard, intent on creating a race of supermen, kidnaps a girl reporter who is to be transformed into the bride of a monster already created.

Texas Stadium Halftime Highlights

Wildcat Band Members Attend Weekend Contest

Plano Senior High's Wildcat Band will perform at the Plano-Odesa Permian Class AAAA semifinal game in Lubbock Saturday afternoon, but will not march at halftime. Participation by more than 30 members of the band in the All-Region music contests Saturday will not leave the band with an adequate number of students to perform its customary halftime show, according to director Tom Bennett. The All-Region contests represent the first qualifying step to All-State honors for band students.

Bennett emphasized that the band will be at the game to play in support of the Wildcats and to play for the Planoettes halftime drill team performance.
